

Basic Detail Report

Title Views of San Francisco, California, 1952-1953

Date 1952-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium Photography

Description A negative strip with images of San Francisco, California, 1952-1953.

(.16) Landscape view taken from high ground on Telegraph Hill of the San Francisco Bay. On the waterfront there are commercial buildings and several different boats in the water. Offshore in the middle of the water is a distant view of Alcatraz Island. Parts of Belvedere Island and the Tiburon Peninsula are seen far in the background. (.17) Landscape view of buildings on the San Francisco Bay Area. The Golden Gate Bridge is seen in the distance. (.18) A man in military uniform standing, holding a long coat, in front of a building. Bushes are seen sitting in front of the building. (.19) Edward Rogalski in uniform and a hat standing in front of a building. Bushes are seen sitting in front of the building. (.20) Landscape view of a road. Buildings are on both sides of the road. There are soldiers in uniform walking around the area. High-rise hills are seen in the background.