

Basic Detail Report

Title Unidentified Landscapes and Military Camp, 1952-1953

Date 1952-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium Photography

Description A negative strip with images of a military camp and unidentified landscapes during the Korean War, 1952-1953. (.6-.7) A view of a row of tents in a military camp. There are trees and high-rise hills in the background. (.8) A landscape view of several men, women, and children in a field next to a pond and a tall tree. The pond that at the bottom of a mountain. (.9) A landscape view of four people at a pond that sits at the bottom of a mountain full of trees. Two of them are swimming in the water while the others are standing on the rocky ground adjacent to the water. (.10) A landscape view of a pond that sits at the bottom of a mountain full of trees. There are people walking on the rocky grounds adjacent to the water. The pond is behind a wired fence surrounded by tall grass that is towards the front bottom section of the image.