

Basic Detail Report

Title Edward Rogalski's Korean War Insignia Display

Date 1951-1953

Primary Maker Edward J. Rogalski

Medium wood; glass

Description Framed display of Edward Rogalski's Korean War patches and insignia. The top row features two U.S. Army 40th Infantry Division patches and a shield-shaped patch with an eagle. The second row features two enlisted man's pins on either side of a Korean Service Medal ribbon with two bronze stars and a United Nations Korean Service Medal ribbon. A Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation with Army Frame is beneath these three ribbons. The third row features a First Army patch on the left, two Staff Sergeant pins, and a 9th Division patch on the right. The fourth row features two Army Quartermaster Branch - Officer and Enlisted pins. The right pin has fallen out of place and is in the lower right corner. The fifth row features two U.S. Army 40th Infantry Division patches, two Staff Sergeant patches, and a First Army belt buckle.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 21 × 19 1/2in. (53.3 × 49.5cm)