

Basic Detail Report

Title Protesters at Black Lives Matter Rally, Bushnell Park, Hartford

Date 4 June 2020

Primary Maker Kerri Ana Provost

Medium born digital photography

Description Born digital photograph of two women wearing face masks walking through Bushnell Park in Hartford, Connecticut to attend a Black Lives Matter rally. They are each holding a sign. The woman on the right is holding her sign with the text facing outwards, which reads, "The system was / never broken, it / was built this / way." This photograph shows the simultaneous fight against two pandemics: COVID-19 and racial injustice.