Medium Photography; black and white photograph on paper and cardstock

Description Group portrait of the eleven oldest children of Frank Woodbridge and Mary Bushnell Cheney, probably taken in a studio. The first set of twins, Howell and John Davenport, are standing in the back row with at least one arm each resting on a chair in front of them. Ward is seated on the far left. Charles is sitting in a chair to Ward's right, in front of Howell. Marjory, one of the younger set of twins, is on his lap. Emily (Milly) is in a chair to their right. The other twin girl, Dorothy, is on her lap. Horace is seated on the far right, in front of John Davenport. He has an arm around Frank, who is standing but leaning back against Horace. Austin and Seth Leslie are sitting on the floor, leaning back against their siblings' chairs.
