

Basic Detail Report

Title William Geary

Date 1890

Medium Photography; Kodak safety film acetate negative

Description Black and white kodak safety film photographic negative, image of an earlier photograph of William Geary, the bookkeeper, at the John Beattie Granite Quarry office, 1890. Two men are seated in an office. Geary sits behind a desk, he has a mustache, wears glasses and is dressed in a long sleeve shirt and vest. The unidentified man is seated in front of the desk, he is clean shaven and dressed in a suit jacket and tie with a fedora-style hat. The small room features a pot belly stove, there are papers and pictures hung on the walls and there are various knick-knacks on shelves and around the office area. This negative is a 20th century photograph of a 19th century photograph.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 15/16 × 4in. (15.1 × 10.2cm)