Title Girls in a Horace Bushnell School Play

Date about 1918

Primary Maker Anne Breckenridge

Medium Photography: black and white photograph on paper

Description View of four girls in costumes sitting or standing outside on a grassy lawn. They are grouped around a towel that has a bowl holding a fire made of tissue paper. The girl on the far left might be Anne Breckenridge. She is wearing a light colored dress and a flower crown. The girl to her right is also wearing a light colored dress, as well as a hat. Cynthia Russell Cheney (1908-1977) is standing to the right. She is wearing a flowing dress with a silk waist band and a saw tooth hem. There is a thin band around her head. Alice Gay Cheney (1869-1945) is kneeling next to Cynthia, wearing a clown costume that is decorated with florets and a matching cone shaped hat. There are flowering bushes in the background.
