

Basic Detail Report

Title Black Lives Matter Mural, Corner of Case and Punch Brook Roads,

Burlington

Date 2020 June 1

Primary Maker Molly Woods

Medium born digital photography

Description Born digital photograph of Black Lives Matter mural painted on a rock at the corner of Case Road and Punch Brook Road in Burlington. It was painted by an unidentified artist in support of Black Lives Matter and the protests that erupted after the death of George Floyd. An American flag is on the left; a Black man kneeling with his hands raised in the center; and the words, "BLACK LIVES MATTER" on the right.