

Basic Detail Report

Title Cheney Children Sledding on the Horace Bushnell Cheney Lawn

Date about 1908

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photograpy: black and white photograph on paper in cardstock window mat

Description View of several children, outside, coasting down a snowy hill on sleds. One child is passing underneath an arch made of snow. There is a wreath resting on the arch. Part of the porch of the Horace Bushnell Cheney house is visible on the left. There are a few trees in the background, at the top of the hill. One tree has an enclosed wooden platform built in it. A man stands in front of that tree, below the platform.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 9 1/4 × 7 1/4in. (23.5 × 18.4 cm) Frame (mat height x width): 13 × 11in. (33 × 27.9cm)