Title Man's Boots

Date about 1825-1835

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Hand-stitched leather, with cotton bootstraps, and metal tacks

Description Black leather boots with a light brown top. The vamp is styled with a decorative extension that forms a point on the front of the ankle. The boots are seamed at the center back. The 6 1/2-inches-wide light brown section folds down from the top edge. A 3 3/4-inch-long loop of the same leather is stitched at the top on each side so that it is oriented downwards; only one remains unbroken. Woven striped cotton straps are stitched to the inside of the boot top; these appear to be original, not replacements for the broken straps on the outside of the boot. The stacked leather heel is very low. The toes are a narrow rounded square, and the soles are straight.
