Title Woman's Bathing Shoes and Box

Date about 1950-1960

Primary Maker Battalino family

Medium Shoes: molded rubber with cork soles and cotton lining. Box: cardboard covered with printed paper.

Description Yellowish cream-colored rubber bathing shoes, with textured cork soles. The rubber is molded with a leather-like texture, and has a decorative cut-out looped design on top of the vamp. This decoration and the throatline are edged with a design resembling three cords laid together. The shoes are unlined; the sock lining is plain-woven tan cotton. The cardboard box is covered with cream-colored paper printed in light gray in a plaid pattern. A stripe of this plaid pattern is formed by the words "UNITED STATES RUBBER COMPANY."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 3 x 3 1/8 x 10in. (7.6 x 7.9 x 25.4cm)
