Date about 1895-1905

Primary Maker Joseph Talcott Hall

Medium Machine-stitched leather and cotton, with metal eyelets, and plaited cotton shoelace with non-ferrous metal tips

Description Brown leather closed-tab, front-lacing toddler's boots, with round toes and no heels. The toes have a decorative toe cap of matching leather, edged with punched dots between two rows of top stitching. The boots, which are above-ankle height, are laced with a plaited brown cotton shoelace through seven pairs of metal eyelets. This opening is backed with a matching leather tongue. The top edge of the the boots are lined with matching leather; the rest of the boot is lined with ecru twill-woven cotton. The sock lining is also twill-woven cotton. The soles are slightly shaped for the right and left foot.
