

Basic Detail Report

Title 1st Batallion Aid Station and 65th Infantry

Date 1950-1975

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Gelatin silver print on paper

Description Views of men in army uniforms at an unknown location. Some men ride in a jeep; one sits in the front seat of a jeep; another man is walking to a tent, and there is laundry hanging on a line in the background. A man is kneeling with a sign reading: "1st BN. AID STA / 65th Int. Regt." There are symbols painted on the sign including a caduceus, the symbol of the medical profession.

Mountains or large hills can be seen in the background, and trees and several bushes are visible.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 x 3in. (7.6 x 7.6cm)

Sheet (height x width): 3 1/2 x 3 1/2in. (8.9 x 8.9cm)