Title Child's Shirt

Date about 1890-1900

Primary Maker Clark family

Medium Hand-stitched cotton, with glass buttons

Description Child's shirt of plain, cream-colored cotton. It is constructed in a rectangle, with the narrow ends folded to the center back. Semi-circles are cut out of the top edge for armholes. A strip of fabric stitched over each armhole forms a shoulder strap, and creates a square neckline. The center back opening fastens with four white glass buttons. The shirt is lined with self-fabric.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 11 x 10in. (27.9 x 25.4cm)
