

Basic Detail Report

Title Child's Drawers

Date about 1890-1900

Primary Maker Clark family

Medium Machine-stitched and hand-stitched cotton

Description Child's drawers of whitework cotton, with widely splayed legs, edged with machine-made tape lace. The legs are slightly gathered into the waistband, which has six buttonholes for attaching the drawers to the shirt. The sides are open for about five inches. Both legs are pieced, so these were probably made from a larger garment.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width across bottom): 13 1/8 x 26in.
