

Basic Detail Report

Title Two Hartford Buildings

Date 1930-1940

Medium Photomechanical prints; halftones in colored inks on postcards

Description Views of the exteriors of two large brick buildings. The New Dom hotel has plateglass shop windows on the ground floor, awnings, a marquee, and signs that read: "NEW DOM HOTEL" and "Cole / SHOES". The Aetna

Insurance Company is a large Georgian office building with a cupola and dome.

An American flag flies from the roof. Trees, a grassy lawn, and what appears to be a chain link fence are in the foreground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 3 1/8 x 5 1/8in. (7.9 x 13cm) Sheet (height x width): 3 1/2 x 6 1/2in. (8.9 x 16.5cm)