

Basic Detail Report

Title Man's Shirt

Date about 1910-1925

Primary Maker Crowley family

Medium Machine-stitched cotton, with mother of pearl buttons and brass studs

Description Man's dress shirt of white cotton, with a band collar fitted with a brass stud at the center back for attaching a separate, stiff collar. The front of the collar also fastens with a stud. The center front opening fastens with five mother of pearl buttons. The long sleeves end in French cuffs. The front and back panels of the shirt curve up at the side seams. The shirt back is gathered into the shoulder yoke towards the outside of the shoulders to provide ease.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (center back length x width across shoulders):

32 5/8 x 18in. (82.9 x 45.7cm)