

Basic Detail Report

Title Bowls

Date late 19th-early 20th century

Medium Wheel-thrown Chinese export porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration

Description Pair of Chinese export porcelain bowls hand-painted in underglaze cobalt blue decoration. They are decorated with dragons and flowers on the inside and outside. The bottom of the inside shows a dragon staring up out of the bowl, surrounded by flowers and wisps of smoke. The interior sides of each bowl are left white, but a border of flowers, vines, and leaves decorates the interior of the rim of each bowl. The exterior sides of the bowls are decorated with two dragons, seen from the side, also surrounded by flowers.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x diameter of both bowls): 4 1/4 x 10in. (10.8cm, 10in.)