Title Shot Glass

Date 1900-1950

Medium Pressed colorless glass with yellow transfer

Description Shot glass made of pressed colorless glass. The shot glass has a plain rim, tapered sides, and a flat bottom. One side is decorated with elaborate printed masonic imagery in a light mustard yellow transfer. The masonic imagery shows two columns, both with a globe on top. Between the two columns are an eye, a sun, a moon, the masonic square and compass, the letter "G", and a ladder, among others. The columns and imagery between them rest on a tile floor and podium.
