Title House in West Hartford

Date early 20th century

Medium Etching; black printer's ink on wove paper

Description A vine-covered, gable-front, Victorian Queen Anne house has a front porch and an oriel window. The tile roof is supported by exposed rafters, and the gable has fishscale shingles and a hip roof peak. On the left, there are trees in front of a chimney or tower that is capped with a small, arched enclosure.

Another porch is partially visible at the left, partly hidden by trees.
