

Basic Detail Report

Title Abel Buell, America's First Type Founder, and Connecticut's First

Engraver

Date 1947

Medium Drawing; ink wash and gouache with graphite on white wove paper with wood pulp paper lining

Description Drawing of a man identified as Abel Buell seated in a chair, looking at a piece of paper in his right hand, and holding another piece of paper in his left hand. He wears a dressing robe, hat and slippers. There are shelves filled with books to the right, and an open window with curtains behind him. A blank square is drawn at the top of the picture.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 21 15/16 x 14 15/16in. (55.7 x 37.9cm)