

Basic Detail Report

Title Connecticut Skipper Pilots First Steamship from Savannah to

Liverpool, 1819

Date 1947

Medium Drawing; ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description Drawing of a large crowd of people on a dock looking out over the water towards a three masted steamship heading towards the land. There is smoke coming out of the smokestacks on the ship, and an American flag flying from the stern. People are waving their arms and hats in the air. Several small boats are in the water appearing to greet the larger ship. Some buildings are partially visible in the distance beyond the people.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 16 x 21in. (40.6 x 53.3cm)