

Basic Detail Report

Title Abraham Lincoln Visits Hartford, 1860

Date 1947

Medium Drawing; ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description Drawing of two men in a carriage. Both men are holding top hats in their laps. One of the men is meant to be Abraham Lincoln. A group of men, called the Wide Awakes, marching alongside the carriage, are wearing hat and cloaks, and carrying torches. There is a store in the background with a sign reading, "GERSHON FOX FANCY GOODS".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 14 1/2 x 21 3/8in. (36.8 x 54.3 cm)