

Basic Detail Report

Title First Railroad in Connecticut

Date 1947

Medium Ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description A drawing of a train making its way through snow drifts. Three engines pull a tender car and what appear to be at least two passenger cars. To the left of the drawing a man is riding on a small sled being pulled by two horses. A fence is partially visible between the man on the sled and the railroad track.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 15 x 21 15/16in. (38.1 x 55.7cm)