

Basic Detail Report

Title New Britain Sends First Hardware Shipment to Ohio, 1849

Date 1947

Medium Ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description A drawing of men unloading crates from a wagon pulled by oxen.

Three men stand by a wagon loaded with wooden crates. One of the men is wearing a hat, and appears to be walking into a building. Another man talks to the third man who is lifting a crate out of the wagon. An ox is partially visible in the right foreground of the drawing, and has metal horn tips capping his horns.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 14 15/16 x 21 7/8in. (37.9 x 55.6 cm)