

Basic Detail Report

Title Tobacco Seeds Grown by Shaker Colony at Enfield, Connecticut,

1802

Date 1947

Medium Ink and gouache with graphite on white wove paper mounted to board

Description A drawing of men working in a field surrounded by a fence. The men are wearing hats, and some hoe rows of crops. One man talks to another driving a horse drawn wagon that reads, "GARDEN SEEDS". Another man in the background is carrying a sack on his back. There are several buildings that appear to be wood frame, surrounding the field. A wheelbarrow is at the left.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 15 x 22in. (38.1 x 55.9cm)