Title Lewis Street, Hartford

Date about 1960

Medium Drawing; watercolor over graphite on wove paper

Description View of Lewis Street, Hartford. Brick buildings line a city street. One appears to have vines, probably ivy, growing on it. Fences and small grassy lawns are in front of some buildings, between the buildings and the sidewalk. A large tree is in the left foreground. Automobiles are parked along the curb at the right beside a lamp post. A round tower is visible at the end of the street. Trees are in the background.
