Title Plan of the New-Haven Burying-Ground

Date before 1839

Medium Engraving; printer's ink on wove paper

Description Map of the burial ground in New Haven, Connecticut, showing numbered plots in twelve vertically-oriented, numbered tiers. The first tier is labeled United Society; the second, Episcopal Society; the third, Yale College; and the fourth, First Society. Above the numbered tiers, on the left side of the map, are six city square plats, two smaller areas for Baptist and Methodist society, a college square plat, and two larger sections for "Strangers" and "People of Colour." To the right of this is a large rectangle diagonally bisected into a meadow and a poplar grove. To the north is the highway; to the east, Prospect Street; to the south, Grove Street; and to the west, another highway.
