Title New map of Hartford, Connecticut

Date 1902

Medium Lithograph; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of Hartford, Connecticut, with Keney Park to the north, the Connecticut River to the east, Goodwin Park to the south, and the town line of West Hartford to the west. The city is divided into ten wards, each labeled and colored. Parks and cemeteries are colored green. Concentric circles in half-mile increments radiate out from City Hall. Streets are labeled and numbers inscribed in circles indicate the location of fire boxes. Police patrols are denoted by stars and numbers. The New York, New Haven and Hartford; Philadelphia, Reading and New England; and New England Railroad lines are depicted. A variety of street-railroad lines are also included.
