Title Map of the Town of Cornwall, Litchfield County, Connecticut

Date 1854

Primary Maker Wagner & McGuigan

Medium Lithography; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper mounted on linen

Description Map of Cornwall, Connecticut, with the town of Canaan to the north, Goshen to the east, Warren and Kent to the south, and Sharon to the west. Small inset maps show the villages of Cornwall, Cornwall Bridge, and West Cornwall.

The town is divided into fifteen numbered districts. Roads, streams, ponds, and mountains are shown. Elevation is indicated with hachure marks. Small trees are used to indicate wooded areas, suggesting that much of the town was deforested. Names of property owners and businesses are indicated. Vignettes show the Congregational Church, Cornwall; the residence of Noah Rogers (North Cornwall); the Residence of Julius Beardsley (Cornwall); the Adelpic Institute, residence of Ambrose S. Rogers; Residence of Col. D. W. Pierce (Cornwall); Cream Hill School, residence of S. W. & T. S. Gold; residence of Isaac Marsh (Cornwall); the Dr. J. A. Welch Alger Institute (Cornwall); the residence of Jacob Scovill (North Cornwall); the residence of Daniel S. Scovill (West Cornwall); the residence of Dr. J. H. Welch; the North Congregational Church; and the store and residence of Pratt & Foster (West Cornwall).
