

Basic Detail Report

Title Geographical, Statistical, and Historical Map of Connecticut

Date 1827

Medium Engraving; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of Connecticut, with Massachusetts to the north, Rhode Island to the east, Long Island and the Long Island Sound to the south, and New York to the west. The state is divided into counties that are labeled and delineated with broken solid lines, while towns are also labeled and delineated with dotted lines. Cities are marked with boxes. Elevation is conveyed with clusters of peaks that are shaded with hachure marks on one side, and other natural features include rivers, ponds, islands, harbors, and points. The map is surrounded by text blocks that describe Connecticut's physical features, population distribution, climate, higher education, government, and history.
