Description Map of the town of Wethersfield, Connecticut with Hartford and East Hartford to the north, the Connecticut River to the east, Rocky Hill to the south, and Newington to the west. A small triangle belonging to Wethersfield labeled "Hockanum Meadow" is on the east side of the Connecticut River. Streets, interstate highways and highway intersections, railroads, streams, and ponds are shown with water mains indicated in blue and red. The town includes much open space, mostly marshy. A Water Service Legend at lower right provides a key to hydrants, hydrants subject to pumped pressure, gate valves (sixteen inch main or larger), MDC water mains (less than six inches in diameter, six to twenty-three inches in diameter, and twenty-four inches or larger in diameter), and private water mains. An index of Wethersfield streets is at the left.
