

Basic Detail Report

Title Map of Willimantic, Connecticut

Date 1835

Medium Drawing; ink, pencil, and watercolor on wove paper

Description Map of the Willimantic River and the mill village of Willimantic. The turnpike to Hartford, a bridge across the river, other existing roads and a proposed road are shown. Buildings include a saw mill, gristmill, and paper mill.

A large rock in the river is labeled "Rock." The dimensions of three plots of land are given. On one of these plots the name "John Moulton" is inscribed in pencil.

The names "Ulysses Young" and "W. C. Jillson" appear on two additional plots. A compass indicating true north and magnetic north is at lower left.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 24 1/4 x 37 5/8in. (61.6 x

95.6cm) Sheet (height x width): 26 1/4 x 39 1/2in. (66.7 x 100.3cm)