Title Puerto Principe

Date 1898

Primary Maker Brigadier General George Malpas Cole

Medium Lithography; black and red printer's inks on cotton

Description Map of the province of Puerto Principe and the eastern edge of Santa Clara. The boundary between them is delineated with a red line. Roads and railroads are shown. Places are marked with their name and a circular symbol. Physical features include swamps, rivers and islands. Water depth in fathoms is shown around the coastline. Other numbers are shown around on the map, in the areas representing water. Some of the numbers have letters representing some kind of units of measurement, although what they are is unclear. In the bottom left is an inset index map showing all of the maps in the series.
