Title 12,000 Square Miles around New York City from New Haven to

Trenton, from Long Branch to the Catskills

Date 1866

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper, in cardboard covers

Description Pocket maps depicting the area 12,000 miles north and east of New York City, with Canaan, Connecticut to the north, the western edge of Hartford County to the east, Trenton, New Jersey to the south, and Port Jervis, New York to the west. The state boundaries are marked in thick pink lines, and county divisions are marked with thinner pink lines. The states are further divided into towns, which are colored pink, yellow, blue or green. Railroad lines are prominently depicted in black, including the New York and Erie; Hudson River; Camden and Amboy; Long Island; New York and Harlem; New York and New Haven; Danbury and Norwalk; Housatonic; Naugatuck; and Hartford, Providence and Fishkill. Canals or aqueducts, cemeteries, blacksmith shops, wheelwrights, and grist and saw mills are also represented on the map. Physical features include elevation, conveyed with hachure marks; swamps and marshes; rivers; and lakes and ponds.
