Description Map of the city of Bridgeport, Connecticut, with the Old Stage Road to the north, East Bridgeport to the east, Long Island Sound to the south, and Fairfield to the west. The New York and New Haven Railroad, the Naugatuck

Railroad, and the Housatonic Railroad intersect at the Bridgeport waterfront.

Bridges cross Bridgeport Harbor and the Pequonnock River. Streets are named and names of property owners are indicated. Elevation is indicated by hachure marks. Vignettes at left and right depict the Bridgeport Foundry and Machine

Company, the First Congregational Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Reverend H. Jones's Cottage School, and the residences of H. K. Harral, Mrs.

Adriance, N. S. Wordin, J. C. Loomis, E. B. Middlebrook, and Stephen Tomlinson.
