Title Map of New Britain Connecticut

Date 1904-1912

Medium Lithography; black printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

mounted on fabric

Description Map of New Britain, Connecticut, with Farmington to the north, Newington to the east, Berlin to the south, and Plainville to the west. Streets are identified; many streets are shown with broken lines, suggesting that they are under construction. Ponds and large streams are colored blue. Parks and cemeteries are colored green. Elevation is not indicated. The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad runs through town. Dotted lines running along major thoroughfares may indicate street railways. Public buildings, churches, and businesses are shown with their footprints. These include the State Normal School, New Britain General Hospital, the New Britain Institute, the Town Farm, the Russian Orthodox Church, the Greek Orthodox Church, the Sacred Heart of Jesus Polish Roman Catholic Church, Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church and School, the Swedish Lutheran Church, the Swedish Evangelical Bethany Church, Saint Matthew's German Lutheran Church, Saint John's German Lutheran Church, Stanley Works, Corbin Manufacturing Company, Corbin Motor Vehicle Company, North and Judd Manufacturing Company, Russell and Irwin Manufacturing Company, and Landers, Frary and Clark. Private houses are not shown.
