Title Group of Boys In Front of a Cabin

Date 1916-1917

Primary Maker Horace Bushnell Cheney Sr.

Medium Photography; gelatin silver emulsion on plastic

Description View of a large group of boys sitting in two rows in front of a shingled cabin in a clearing in the woods. One row of boys sits on the porch of the cabin, and the other row sits on the dirt in front of it. Most of the boys are wearing matching outfits consisting of button-down shirts, neckties, shorts, and tall socks, indicating that they are at a camp of some sort. There is a tent to the left of the cabin. They are somewhere in Keene Valley, New York.
