

Basic Detail Report

Title West view of Lyme, Con.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description View of Lyme from the west bank of the Lieutenant River. A man drives a horse-drawn vehicle along a road behind a stone wall in the foreground. The road leads across a bridge towards a cluster of houses and other buildings. The Congregational Church is in the center of the composition. The hills beyond the town are largely bare of trees.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 4 3/4in. (9 x 12cm)