

Basic Detail Report

Title South Western view of the Congregational Church and academy in Weston, Con.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description The Congregational Church is in the center and Staples Academy is on the right. A house with a small outbuilding is on the left. The land on the left is steep and rocky and on the right is smooth and level; on both sides of the road stone walls divide it into fields. A man, woman and girl are walking along the road between the stone walls.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 3 9/16 x 4 3/4in. (9 x 12cm)