

Basic Detail Report

Title Western view of the Buckley Tavern, Fairfield.

Date probably 1836

Primary Maker John Warner Barber

Medium Drawing; ink on paper

Description Two-story center chimney building with additions at the right and at the rear. According to Barber the building was built by "Mr. Buckley" and was used as a tavern from 1740 until the early 1830s.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 1 15/16 x 3 9/16in. (5 x 9cm)