

Basic Detail Report

Title New trolley tracks, Needham Corner, Main Street, Hartford,

October 2, 1902

Date 1902

Primary Maker Elmer M. White

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description View looking north on Main Street near the corner of Morgan and Market Street. New trolley tracks are being laid down the middle of the road.

Two trolleys are in the distance. Horse-drawn carriages and wagons are on both sides of the road. Pedestrians are on the sidewalks. A bicycle leans on the curb at the left. Businesses in commercial buildings include: H.H. Willes, Geo. H.

Weeks, the Standard Tea House, the Hartford Butter Co. and Dolin's Saloon.

Breen's Monuments and the Wayside Print Shop are in the distance. Utility poles line the street.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 1/16in. (13 x 18cm)