Title Trolley track work, South Main Street, Hartford, November 16,

1896

Date 1896

Primary Maker H. O. Warner

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Small group of men, most of whom appear to be African American, are digging up the street. Most wear hats and carry pickaxes. In the background are commercial buildings on the west side of Main Street. A fire hydrant is on the sidewalk at the left. The building behind it contains the furniture business of Linus T. Fenn. At the next corner, on the opposite side of Mulberry Street has signs that read: "Coleman & Kennelly / Druggists" and "Robbins & Winship." The large white building to the right of center is the City Hotel. Utility poles and wires line the street.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 5 1/8 x 7 7/8in. (13 x 20cm)
