

Basic Detail Report

Title Horse-drawn Wagon in Front of Gladwin & Howard Furniture

Store, West Meriden

Date about 1885

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description A man wearing a cap and vest is driving an open wagon drawn by a horse on a dirt road with a frame commercial building in the background. A sign above the porch reads: "Gladwin & Howard / Furniture." Some of the other large frame buildings may be multiple-family residences. A small building immediately to the left of the store may be an outhouse. A concrete sidewalk is behind the wagon and in front of the buildings.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 4 5/16 x 5 1/8in. (11 x 13cm)