

Basic Detail Report

Title Bobby Seale and Two Others with Drums and Fife

Date probably 1970-1971

Primary Maker Edmund S. Valtman

Medium Drawing; black ink on paper

Description Drawing of Black Panther Bobby Seale (center, wearing glasses), another man who is possibly Warren Kimbro (right), and an unidentified man on the left. All three are dressed in breeches, hose and jackets consistent with those worn in the American Revolution. The two men on the left and playing drums worn around their necks, and the man on the right is playing the fife.

Dimensions Sheet (height x width): 14 3/8 x 11 1/4in. (36.5 x 28.6cm)