

Basic Detail Report

Title Leatherman eating, Wallingford

Date before 1889

Primary Maker George W. Bartholomew

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on cardboard mount

Description Man in patched leather clothing consisting of a leather shirt, jacket, trousers, boots and hat. The stitches holding the leather pieces together are clearly visible. He sits on a bench, apparently in an interior and appears to be eating. A large leather bag is on the floor at the right.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (overall height x width): 6 5/16 x 3 15/16in. (16 x 10cm)