

Basic Detail Report

Title Child's moccasin

Date about 1910-1920

Primary Maker Walter Treadway Huntington

Medium suede, felt, plastic, cotton twill, linen

Description Single moccasin, with a suede sole, pink linen lined brown velvet heel and red twill top. The heel portion is decorated with two strings of white beads. The front is decorated with additional strings of white beads following the contour of the toe, with heavy beading in gold, red, white, green and clear in a design that could be an arrow or a tree. The heel and toe area are sewn to the suede sole by hand. The fabric toe is backed with a thin piece of leather. Worn by Walter, Mary or Clark Huntington of Windsor, Connecticut.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Length of sole) 6 5/8 x (Height at heel) 3in.

(16.8 x 7.6cm)