

Basic Detail Report

Title Red Cross Lapel Pin

Date about 1994

Primary Maker American Red Cross

Medium metal; plastic

Description A square lapel pin that was given out by the Red Cross at a blood drive sponsored by Channel 30, WVIT Hartford, for being a blood donor during the winter of 1994/1995. On recto, written in red, there is a cross, "HOLIDAY/ HEROES CLUB," and a house with a snow covered roof, black chimney, windows, and door. The background is blue with snow falling, and in the foreground is an image of a snowman with a black hat and red buttons. "30" is in white and "WVIT" is written in blue and underlined in red. On the bottom "WINTER" is written in black. On verso there is a clasp post with a sharp point and a second shorter post that is flat.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 1 × 1in. (2.5 × 2.5cm)