Title Hartford Circus Fire: Remains of Bandstand

Date July 6, 1944

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description A charred multi-level platform has a small ladder and a large charred tent pole leaning on it. Some twisted metal folding chairs can be seen.

Also at the top of the platform is what appears to be a charred organ, and to the right are two kettle drums. In the background are circus wagons and trailers and a large tent. This is probably where the band was performing when the fire started.
