

Basic Detail Report

Title Abigail Hurlbut Welles

Date about 1914-1915

Primary Maker Abigail Hurlbut Welles

Medium Painting; oil on canvas

Description Painting of Abigail Hurlbut Welles attributed to Huc-Mazelet

Luquiens after an earlier drawing of the subject. She is depicted in older age.

She has a ruddy complexion, and white hair that is entirely covered by a white, ruffled cap held closely to her head with a broad black band and tied under her neck with narrow black strings. She wears a dark, reddish-brown dress and a string of gold beads. The background is a dull, dark oval on a darker square ground.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 30 × 25 1/2in. (76.2 × 64.8cm)